

Introduction to Latin, Second Edition

By Susan C. Shelmerdine ISBN: (978-1-58510-390-4)

Chapter 15

Nouns

*cīvis, cīvis m. or f.	citizen dolor, dolōris m.	pain, sorrow equus, equī m.	horse humus, humī f.	ground, earth Gallia, Galliae f.	Gaul labor, labōris m.	work, labor, effort; hardship laus, laudis f.	praise pectus, pectoris n.	breast, chest; heart perīculum, perīculī n.	danger proelium, proeliī n.	battle prōvincia, prōvinciae f.	province rūs, rūris n.	the country(side)

Verbs

condō, condere, condidī, conditus	to found, build, establish frangō, frangere, frēgī, frāctus	break, shatter, wreck incendō, incendere, incendī, incēnsus	to set fire to, burn; inflame prohibeō, prohibēre, prohibuī, prohibitus	to prohibit, keep from; to keep someone (acc.) from something (abl. – separation ) vītō, vītāre, vītāvī, vītātus	to avoid

Adjectives

aequus, aequa, aequum	even, calm, equal cēterī, cēterae, cētera	the rest, the others dignus, digna, dignum	worthy; worth, fitting indignus, indigna, indignum	unworthy; undeserved; shameful suus, sua, suum	his, her, its, their own

Prepositions

circum / circā (+ acc.)	around super (+ acc.)	over, above, on (top of)