

Introduction to Latin, Second Edition

By Susan C. Shelmerdine ISBN: (978-1-58510-390-4)

Chapter 31

Nouns

| | |
|--------------------------------------|-------------------------|
| fās n. (indeclinable) | right; divine law |
| fās est | it is right |
| nefās est | it is wrong |
| impedimentum, impedimentī n. | hindrance, obstacle |
| īnsidiae, īnsidiārum f. (pl.) | ambush, plot; treachery |
| lūmen, lūminis n. | light, lamp, torch; eye |
| tellūs, tellūris f. | the earth; land, ground |

Verbs

| | |
|--|--|
| licet, licēre, licuit (impersonal + dat.) | it is allowed, it is lawful |
| oportet, oportēre, oportuit (impersonal + acc.) | it is right, one should; it is necessary |

Adjectives

| | |
|------------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| dūrus, dūra, dūrum | hard, harsh, rough |
| honestus, honesta, honestum | honest, worthy, honorable |
| ignārus, ignāra, ignārum | ignorant (of), unaware (of) |

Adverbs

| | |
|-------------|------------------------|
| hīc | here |
| hinc | from this place; hence |