

Introduction to Latin, Second Edition

By Susan C. Shelmerdine ISBN: (978-1-58510-390-4)

Chapter 8

Nouns

moenia, moenium n. (pl.)	walls; fortifications littera, litterae f.	letter (of the alphabet); (pl.) letter, literature nihil n. (indeclinable)	nothing nīl (contracted form) vērītās, vērītātis f.	truth

Verbs

agō, agere, ēgī, actus	to do, perform; drive quid agis?	how are you (doing)? audiō, audīre, audīvī, audītus	to hear, listen (to) capīō, capere, cēpī, captus	to take, seize, capture creō, creāre, creāvī, creātus	to create; elect, choose dīcō, dīcere, dīxī, dictus	to say, speak, tell doceō, docēre, docuī, doctus	to teach (often with 2 accusatives, one of the person, the other of the thing taught) dormiō, dormīre, dormīvī, dormitūrus	to sleep dūcō, dūcere, dūxī, ductus	to lead faciō, facere, fēcī, factus	to do; make iūdicō, iūdicāre, iūdicāvī, iūdicātus	to judge; to decide legō, legere, lēgī, lēctus	to read; choose, select mittō, mittere, mīsī, missus	to send regō, regere, rēxī, rēctus	to rule scribō, scribere, scrīpsī, scrīptus	to write sentiō, sentīre, sēnsī, sēnsus	to feel, perceive valeō, valēre, valuī, valitūrus	to be well, healthy; to be strong valē, valēte (imperative)	goodbye, farewell veniō, venīre, vēnī, ventūrus	to come

Adjectives

īrātus, īrāta, īrātum	angry plēnus, plēna, plēnum (+ gen. or abl.)	full (of), filled (with)

Pronoun

is, ea, id	he, she, it, they; this, that
------------	-------------------------------