Contents

Acknowledgments

Introduction

Maps

Chapter 1: Travel Literature and Geographical Guides

1. Al-Harawi on Antioch, Tiberias and its surroundings, Acre, Jerusalem, Bethlehem, Hebron, and Ascalon

2. Ibn Jubayr on the Christians of Mount Lebanon and trade between Muslims and Franks

3. Ibn Jubayr on the cities of Banyas, Acre, Tyre, and Muslims under Frankish rule

4. Yaqt al-Hamawi on Ascalon, Jaffa, Caesarea, Atlit, Acre, Tyre, Margat, Saône, and Kerak

Chapter 2: Jihad Books and Juridical Directives

1. Ibn ‘Asakir on Jihad

2. Al-‘Izz son of ‘Abd al-Salam on Jihad

3. Al-Subki’s account of al-‘Izz son of ‘Abd al-Salam’s juridical directive banning the sale of arms to the Franks

4. Ibn Taymiyya’s juridical directive against the Shi‘is

Chapter 3: Chronicles, Memoirs, and Poetry

1. Ibn al-Athir on the emergence of the Franks

2. Ibn al-Qalanisi on the capture of Antioch, Ma‘arrat al-Nu‘man, and Jerusalem, and the attack against Ascalon in 1098–1099

3. Ibn al-Athir on the capture of Jerusalem and the attack against Ascalon

4. Al-‘Azimi on the Battle of the Field of Blood (1119) and several events between 1108 and 1141

5. Hamdan al-Atharibi on receiving a land tenure from the Frankish lord of al-Atharib

6. Al-Qaysarani’s poems about the Frankish and Greek women in Antioch
7. Ibn al-Qalanisi on the siege of Damascus in 1148
8. Ibn al-Athir on the siege of Damascus
9. Ibn ʿAsakir’s poem about Nur al-Din in honor of his forces taking Egypt in 1169
10. Ibn al-Athir on the defeat of the Franks at Hattin in 1187
11. ʿImad al-Din al-Isfahani on the seizure of the Relic of the True Cross, the capture of Tiberias, and the execution of the Frankish prisoners
12. Rashid al-Din al-Nabulusi’s poem on Saladin’s liberation of Jerusalem in 1187
13. Ibn Shaddad on the expedition of the German emperor and the letter of the Armenian catholicos to Saladin in 1190
15. Sibt Ibn al-Jawzi on al-Muʿazzam’s destruction of the wall of Jerusalem in 1219
17. Sibt Ibn al-Jawzi on the envoys of Frederick to al-Muʿazzam in 1226
18. Ibn Wasil on Frederick arriving in Acre in September 1228
19. Sibt Ibn al-Jawzi on Frederick’s visit to the Noble Sanctuary of Jerusalem in March 1229
20. Ibn Wasil on the negotiations between al-Kamil and Frederick, and the emperor’s visit to the Haram of Jerusalem
21. Ibn Wasil on the handing over of Jerusalem to the Franks in 1243
22. Al-Yunini on a local Christian ransoming a Muslim captive from a Frank
23. Jamal al-Din Ibn Matruh’s poem on the defeat of King Louis IX near Damietta in 1250
24. Abu Shama on the Mongols’ capture of Damascus in 1260
25. Ibn Wasil on the battle of ʿAyn Jalut in 1260 and related events
26. Ibn Wasil on a Muslim embassy to Emperor Manfred in 1262
27. Baybars al-Mansuri on the capture of Crac des Chevaliers (1271); the death of the Monarch al-Zahir Baybars (1278); and the capture of Tyre, Sidon, Atlit, Beirut, and Haifa (1291)
28. Al-Nuwayri al-Iskandarani on Peter of Cyprus’s sack of Alexandria in 1365
Chapter 4: Biographies

1. Ibn ‘Asakir on Jesus
2. Ibn ‘Asakir on al-Findalawi
3. Ibn ‘Asakir on Nur al-Din
4. Sibt Ibn al-Jawzi on al-Mu’azzam
5. Al-Dhahabi on al-Mu’azzam
6. Ibn Abu Usaybi’a on the Christian physician Ya’qub son of Siqlab
7. Al-Dhahabi on the Christian physician Ya’qub son of Siqlab

Chapter 5: Correspondences, Treaties, and Truces

1. Al-Qalqashandi’s account of Saladin’s letter of condolence to King Baldwin IV in 1174
2. Ibn Shaddad on Saladin’s negotiations with Richard the Lionheart in 1191 and the latter’s proposal that al-ʿAdil marry Richard’s sister Joan
3. Ibn Nazif al-Hamawi’s account of Frederick’s letter to commander Fakhr al-Din son of Shaykh al-Shuyukh
4. Al-Qalqashandi’s account of the oaths of the truce between Sultan Qalawun and the Franks of Acre, Sidon, and Atlit

Chapter 6: Inscriptions

1. Fatimid inscription on a tower fortification in Ascalon (1150)
2. Inscription on the pulpit that Nur al-Din commissioned for the Aqsa Mosque in Jerusalem (1168–1169)
3. Inscription panel marking the foundation of a trench around the fortification wall of the old city of Jerusalem during the reign of Saladin (1191)
4. Inscription above the entrance to St. Anne’s Church in Jerusalem, transformed into a college of Shafi’i law and named after Saladin—al-Madrasa al-Salihiyya (1192)
5. Inscription above the main entrance gate to the shrine in Hebron housing the cenotaphs of Isaac and Rebecca (1215)
6. Foundation inscription on the wall of the Fortress of Subayba (Nimrod’s Fortress) on the hills overlooking Banyas (1228)
7. Inscription above the arch of the gate to the northwest tower of the Fortress of Subayba (1230)

8. Inscription on a mosque in the village of Bayt Hanun (1239)

9. Inscription on the mausoleum of Khalid son of al-Walid in Hims (1266)

10. Inscription on the shrine of Salman al-Farisi in Ashdod (1269)

11. Inscription commemorating Baybars’s renovations of Crac des Chevaliers (1271)

12. Inscription commemorating Baybars’s renovations of the Fortress of Subayba (1275)

13. Inscription on a hospice in Hebron for visitors to the shrine of Abraham (1280)

14. Inscription on a hospice for pilgrims in Jerusalem (1282)

15. Inscription on the top and the bottom of the two doors of the gate that leads to the shrine housing the cenotaphs of Abraham and Sarah (1286)

Appendix A: Islamic Calendar

Appendix B: Quranic Verses on War and Peace

Appendix C: Bibliographic Overview of the Major Muslim Sources of the Crusader Period

Appendix D: Glossary of Dynasties, Persons, Sects, Terms, etc.

Bibliography

Index